JUDGMENT

Exhibits P1 to P3 arbitration cases were transferred for consideration by the second respondent. This writ petition was filed alleging that the person, who then held the office of the second respondent, was likely to be influenced. Whatever that be, with the passage of time, yet another person in office as the second respondent. Obviously, therefore, the apprehension of the petitioner does not continue to survive. This writ petition is hence closed without prejudice to proceedings.

THOTTATHIL B. RADHAKRISHNAN,
Sha/ JUDGE.
